

American Revolutionary War Battles- Map Review

Directions: Use the map on page 131 for the battle details.

1. Trace and label the Delaware River and the Hudson River in blue
2. Draw in the symbols and label places listed in the box in pen
3. Complete the map key
4. Shade in the three colonial regions in 3 separate colors

New York City Battles
Battle of Trenton, NJ
Battle of Princeton, NJ
Battle of Saratoga, NY
Battle of King's Mountain, NC
Battle of Cowpens, SC
Battle of Savannah, GA
Battle of Yorktown, VA
Valley Forge, PA

Major Battles of the American Revolutionary War

Map Key/Legend

- American military victory
- British military victory
- American winter camp
- Proclamation Line of 1763
- Rivers

The Battles at Concord and Lexington have been referred to as the "shot heard round the world". Later the Continental Army tried to defend a strategical spot on hill over Boston called Bunkers Hill. They lost due to lack of ammunition. The Americans patriots had their first pre-battles that would lead to the Revolutionary War. Use the map you labeled to answer the following questions about the battles that took place during the four year war to independence.

1. Name the battles took place in each region:

a. New England Colonial Region: _____

b. Middle Colonial region: _____

c. South Colonial region: _____

2. Describe the location of the Proclamation line if 1763. _____

_____

3. Which battle(s) took place along the Hudson River? _____

4. Which battle(s) took place along the Delaware River? _____

5. Which colony was the American winter camp located? _____

American Revolutionary War

- New York City Battles
- Battle of Trenton, NJ
- Battle of Princeton, NJ
- Battle of Saratoga, NY
- Battle of King's Mountain, NC
- Battle of Cowpens, SC
- Battle of Savannah, GA
- Battle of Yorktown, VA
- Valley Forge, PA

Map Key/Legend

- American military victory
- British military victory
- American winter camp
- Proclamation Line of 1763
- Rivers